Group home opens in Lexington, SC.
SECH transitions to a "Moderate Management Group Home," emphasizing treatment planning, individual counseling and crisis intervention.
Concerned individuals in NC and SC form SECH.
50 acres of property purchased in Duncan, SC.
R.W. Doc Senn Cottage for boys opens on campus.
1968
1971
1978
1982
1986
1989
1991
1993
1997
2004
Group home opens in Sumter, SC
The Sara Smith Cottage for girls opens on campus.
Southeastern Counseling Center opens in the Hancock Family Service Center.
SECH receives Child Placing License to approve foster and adoptive families.
Pre-independent living cottage purchased in Lyman, SC.